

Oracle Date Notes

Vocab

AS	Format mask	NUMTOYMINTERVAL
CAST	INTERVAL DAY TO SECOND	SYSDATE
DATE	INTERVAL YEAR TO MONTH	TIMESTAMP
Dual table	NEXT_DAY	TO_CHAR
EXTRACT	NUMTODSINTERVAL	TO_DATE
		TRUNC

Questions

What is the default display format of a DATE in Oracle?

What are the parameters in the TO_CHAR method?

What are the parameters in the TO_DATE function?

What do each of these format masks represent?

Format Mask	Meaning	Format Mask	Meaning
YYYY		DD
RR		DAY
MM		DY
MON		HH
Mon		HH24
Month		MI
Ddspth		SS
fm*		Year

How do you add days to a date?

How do you add hours to a date?

How do you add minutes to a date?

What MUST be done for any use of a function in a SELECT clause?

How do you ask a question when there is NO database?

Does the case matter with a format mask?

How do you match a date in a WHERE clause?

What is a problem with using two digits for the year?

How do you remove part of an answer?

Can you use relational operators (<, >, <=, >=) on a date?

Can you use BETWEEN ... AND ... on a date?

How do you calculate the years between two dates?

What function is used to take part of a TIMESTAMP out of the result

How do you nest the TO_CHAR and TO_DATE functions to get a four digit year displayed?

What are the parameters for the NUMTOYMINTERVAL method?

What are the parameters for the NUMTODSINTERVAL method?

What can be extracted from an INTERVAL?

What keyword is needed when using CAST?

What data type can use fractional seconds?

What is a problem when comparing results from the MONTH and Month masks?

How can you find the next day?