SQL Developer Notes

Questions

How to run a query?

What is the difference between Run Statement and Run Script?

How do you show more results when you run your query with Run Statement?

Why does it only show SOME of the results?

Which type of Run will match the expected results?

Where do you see error messages from your query?

Where do you find the data we are working with?

How can you export your results?

How do you clear the results window?

How can you see the data inside a table WITHOUT a query?

Review

What is something you figured out today?

Practice

How many rows do you get when you select everything from the student table?

How many unique rows are in the employer field of the student table?

How many columns are in the student table?